

Literacy:

The Naughty Bus - sentence structure looking at nouns and verbs.

Retelling stories orally then written.

AT HOME: Can you write a diary entry for the naughty bus?

Music:

Exploring pitch, rhythm and pulse through music.

AT HOME: Clap/tap along to music in the car etc.

Can you find the pulse?

Maths:

Counting in 2s, 5s and 10s.

Securing place value knowledge of two digit numbers.

Addition

Subtraction.

Length & Weight.

Traffic Survey

AT HOME: Pick out two digit cards (e.g. 2 and 8) What is the biggest number you can make? The smallest?

Science:

Learning about the human body and comparing to other animals.

Herbivores, carnivores and omnivores

Looking after ourselves.

AT HOME: What foods are good for our bodies?

Which aren't so good? Can you make a list?

OUTDOOR LEARNING:

We shall use the school grounds to investigate the season of Winter and animal habitats.

At Home: Can you take a journey on a bus and tell us all about it.

PE:

Gymnastics—body control and strengthening.

Working in unison and sequencing.

AT HOME? Perform a sequence to your family.

Art and Design:

Tiger art—Henry Rousseau

Design and make our own kites.

AT HOME:

Can you find any pictures / paintings of tigers? Describe what you see? Which do you like best?

RE:

The Jewish Religion. Looking at customs and objects.

AT HOME: Can you draw and label something that is important to Jews?

D&T:

Designing and making our own buses. Building houses for Fire of London day.

AT HOME: Can you make your own vehicle? (lego, boxes etc)

Topic (History)

We will be learning about the great fire of London and building our own models.

AT HOME: Can you find out where and when it started? Or any other facts about the Fire of London?

Computing:

Internet safety

Using phonic games

Fire Of London Pictures

AT HOME: Can you use the internet safely?

Spiritual, Moral and Cultural:

Our value this term is Thankfulness. What are you thankful for?

AT HOME:

Can you think of a time when you said thank you to someone? Why did you say thank you?

Bright Lights, Big City
Launch: The Naughty Bus
Landing: Fire of London Day.